Creo

Creo – we dedicate to lovers of simplicity, who appreciate functionality, but do not imagine that it would outweigh comfort. So this collection combines both of these characteristics. Specially selected high-flexible foams, well-shaped and contoured cushions provide the same high level of comfort that we can find in non-functional furniture, and here, in addition, in both the sofas and corner versions, the result is a sleeping function and a container for bedding. The interesting reverse-trim stitching adds a whole new look but retains its neutrality, which makes it fit perfectly into interiors with different styles.
